MOLLY WEASLEY'S SANDWICH SELECTION

Throughout the Harry Potter stories, Molly often believed that a plate of sandwiches could help with any situation. However, these aren't Ron's squashed corned beef sandwiches from the Hogwarts Express.

Our creations capture the essence of her character, infused with the same warmth and love that she so effortlessly exudes.

SAVOURY BITES

McGonagall's Scottish Smoked Salmon Tart
Hogwarts sits among the mountains and lochs of Scotland, the country Minerva McGonagall called home. Celebrating the flavours of the Highlands, this vegan smoked salmon buckwheat tart is paired with horseradish, dill and salt-pickled cucumber.

Quaffle
While considerably smaller than the 12-inch regulation Quaffle in Quidditch, this flavour-packed recreation is no less memorable. This chickpea falafel is blended with Moroccan-style spices and served as a tribute to the wizarding world's favourite sport.

Dragon Egg
The coveted golden egg awaited each champion after their encounter with a dragon. Inspired by this Triwizard prize, a cucumber cup filled with lemon & dill mousse is crowned with a gilded, blackened quail egg.

SWEET TREATS

Christmas Tree Cupcake
A nod to the Christmas trees that line the Great Hall, this spiced carrot and apple sponge is topped with a vegan buttercream tree.

Honeydukes Macaron
Inspired by the treats found within Honeydukes' famous green storefront, this mint green macaron is filled with dark chocolate & mint ganache and finished with a candy cane.

Yule 'Ball' Log
The Yule Ball transformed the Great Hall into a shimmering winter celebration. Inspired by this magical festive dance, our ginger and chocolate yule log is finished with a dark chocolate star.

Golden Snitch
Harry Potter's first Golden Snitch concealed a secret crucial to the fate of the wizarding world. Our white chocolate version hides something delicious: a luscious cherry ganache.

Butterbeer Scone
A magical twist on the classic British scone infused with fudge pieces and the warmth and richness of the wizarding world's favourite beverage, accompanied by Butterbeer-infused cream and strawberry jam.
